The Resilience & Innovation Start-up competition today!

The Resilience and Innovation Summit brings together young innovators, travel tech start-ups, universities, and businesses from the SEE region to drive digital innovation in tourism with a focus on digital innovations, AI-driven ventures, and e-services.

The USAID Developing Sustainable Tourism in Bosnia Herzegovina (Turizam) project, the Global Travel & Tourism Resilience Council and Travolution are joining forces to promote innovation, and to harness the immense potential of the tourism industry by launching the Resilience & Innovation Startup Competition as an excellent opportunity for startups and scaleups to raise their profile and get the attention of investors and other potential business partners in tourism.

WHO CAN APPLY?

High potential start-ups preferably in the field of travel tech, registered in SEE¹ for a maximum of two years at the date of the application deadline and with less than $2 million USD funding.
